

Group Discussion Document

Ice Breaker:

- Share a time when you were surprised by the significance or meaning of a name, whether it was your own, someone else's, or even a place. How did that change your perspective?

Short Summary of the Sermon: The sermon focused on the third commandment, emphasizing the importance of honoring God's name. It highlighted how our culture often treats sacred things as ordinary, particularly the name of God. The pastor stressed that God's name is inseparable from God Himself and should be revered. The sermon encouraged developing a passion for God's name, which transforms our worship, lifestyle, and priorities. It concluded with the reminder that God's name, "I Am," is the answer to all our problems, underscoring the need to honor and revere His name in all aspects of life.

Group Questions:

1. Why do you think our culture struggles to hold things sacred, especially the name of God?
2. How does the way we use God's name reflect our relationship with Him?
3. What are some practical ways we can develop a passion for God's name in our daily lives?
4. How does viewing God as "Abba Father" change how we approach worship and prayer?
5. In what ways can our lifestyle choices either honor or dishonor God's name?
6. How can we ensure that our actions and words as Christians make God's name look great to those around us?

Life Application:

- Reflect on your daily habits and interactions. Identify one area where you can be more intentional about honoring God's name. This could be in your speech, work ethic, or how you treat others.

Challenge:

- This week, consciously avoid using God's name in vain and instead, find opportunities to speak His name with reverence and love. Share your experiences with the group next week, focusing on how this practice affected your relationship with God and others.
