

Ice Breaker:

- Share a childhood memory of an activity you loved doing for fun. How does it compare to what kids enjoy today?

Short Summary of the Sermon: The sermon focused on the theme of complacency as the true enemy of faith, rather than unbelief. It highlighted how complacency can lead to a static, deteriorating, and boring faith that rebels against the Word of God. Using examples from King David's life and cultural references like the Rocky movies, the sermon illustrated the dangers of a comfortable faith and the importance of living a dynamic, adventurous Christian life. The call was to examine areas of unsundered life and to actively pursue a faith that is alive and impactful.

Group Questions:

1. What stood out to you the most from the sermon, and why?
2. How do you define complacency in your own spiritual life?
3. Can you identify a time when you felt spiritually complacent? What led to that state?
4. How does the story of King David illustrate the dangers of complacency?
5. What are some practical ways to combat complacency in your faith journey?
6. How can we encourage each other to live a more dynamic and adventurous faith?

Life Application:

- Reflect on areas in your life where you may have become complacent. Consider your spiritual disciplines, relationships, and personal growth. Identify one area where you can take a step of faith to move out of complacency.

Challenge:

- This week, choose one area of your life where you feel God is calling you to step out in faith. It could be sharing your faith with someone, volunteering for a ministry, or starting a new spiritual discipline. Share your plan with the group and commit to taking action before the next meeting.
